P.S. I am INNOCENT.

I challenge each of you to sit outside or in a garage with the man door wide open for 24 hours over the next week, in only your underwear, and you can't leave of your own accord. People know you're there and that you're suffering. People with absolute authority to help you know you are there and all they have to do is open a gate to set you free, but because you were put there by one of the "good old boys" in town and a friend to law enforcement no one will help you. That's what they did to those poor dogs - both of whom were senior and one of which was VERY sick and the other which was VERY skinny.

Best wishes to you all.
